Bryan A. Nilsen

August 9, 1966 - May 11, 2022

Bryan Nilsen, of Eltingville, passed away on Wednesday, May 11th at the age of 55.
Bryan was born on August 9th, 1966 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Robert and Joann Nilsen.

He was a loving brother to Sam (Jit), John (Colleen), and Nick (Erin) and wonderful uncle to Nicole, Amanda, Tyler, Jordan, Norman and Henry.

Bryan was a dedicated RN for over 27 years, working all fields of nursing, including emergency trauma and Psych. He also enjoyed staying busy whether he was hunting, fishing, camping, gardening or simply taking his two dogs for a walk.

Bryan shared his remarkable life with Linda Gill and he loved being a Grandpa to Caden, Julia, and Lucas. Bryan will be especially remembered for his kind soul and giving nature.

In lieu of flowers please consider planting a tree in Bryan's name

I remember when you called me from Top Tomato and forgot to hang up. You were singing Lenny Kravitz "fly away" on your way home. When you got home I started singing it!!! You'll be forever missed

Bryan, as u would say hey buddy , I'm lost for words , u were my best friend !! We grew up together since we were 13 , I heard a rumor that u passed away , n I was like , no way , I just talked to B the other day . I sat on it for two days n tried calling u, then I took a ride to ur house , ur shades were down n the dogs weren't there , that's when I knew ! N didn't want to believe it ! I had to google obituaries, n sad to say it was true !! I'll forever miss u !! I could always go to u for support!!
