

Anthony A. Addonizio

April 25, 1961 - March 24, 2020

Anthony A. Addonizio, 58, passed away on March 24, 2020 at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital after a courageous battle with Acute Myeloid Leukemia. His loving family was by his side.

He was born and raised in the Gravesend section of Brooklyn to the late Anthony and Josephine and in 1995 settled in Great Kills.

Anthony owned and operated Bova Meat Market in Brooklyn for 3 years. He loved his job and working. His family stated he was a "workaholic", and most recently worked as a warehouse supervisor for Ranchers Best Wholesale Meats in Staten Island for over 20 years.

He was very active in his childrens' activities and coached his sons' baseball and flag football team. Anthony was a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan, as well as loved dancing and taking trips to Atlantic City. In his leisure time, he would enjoy a good cigar with a glass of Jonnie Walker Blue in his back yard.

He was a generous, loving, bubbly and kind person who always put others first. Above all, Anthony was a devoted husband and father who truly loved spending time with his family, especially going out on weekends with his wife and children to various restaurants. He was a special friend to many and was loved by all.

Anthony was the beloved husband of 32 years to Sandra. Loving father to Alyssa, Anthony and Sal. Fond father-in-law to Jonathan and Amber. Dear brother-in-law to Jodi Guarneri. Anthony is also survived by many loving family and friends.

A viewing for the immediate family will take place on Thursday from 1:00-5:00 p.m. at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. Staten Island.

A Funeral Service for immediate family will take place on Friday at 10:00 a.m. in the Funeral Home. Interment will follow in Ocean View Cemetery.

If so desired, contributions to Anthony's family would be greatly appreciated.

Events

MAR Interment 11:00AM

27

Ocean View Cemetery

3315 Amboy Rd, Staten Island, NY, US, 10306

Comments

“ Rest In Peace with the Angels. It was fun working with you in Danza. You always made us laugh

cathy criscuola - March 28 at 04:46 PM

“ Growing up I didn't have much left of my father, the only thing i had left my this little pocket knife he gave me on my 10th birthday that i ended up losing after moving into Kims house. My 21st birthday came around and everyone from the family came, but what made it truly special was the gift Anthony gave me, it was my dads work jacket, I never in my life received anything more special, more sentimental in my entire life. I sobbed in the bathroom like a baby for a good 20 mins, no one can understand what that jacket meant, and still means to me. The fact that it was kept all those years, will always hold a special place in my heart. There isn't a gift on earth that can make me feel the way that jacket made me feel that day. That pocket knife i actually found not too long after which is a crazy coincidence. God took away a good man, a good father, and an amazing husband way too soon. I love you Anthony, until we meet again.

Frank Morris - March 28 at 03:38 AM

“ Sorry to hear of Anthony's passing. He is in a better and safer place with all of the family. My memories of him delivering eggs and being on the farm upstate will always be with me.

Love to all,
Joseph Addonizio (Henry's son) and family
PS...Donnie knows how to contact me

Joseph Addonizio - March 27 at 09:29 AM

“ Sandra my condolences to you and your family,
So sorry to hear the passing
Of Anthony. May he Rest In Peace.
Cousin Theresa and Larry Bensky uncle Henry Daughter

Terri - March 27 at 06:33 AM

“ I think back at all the fun times we had together; BBQ's, dinners, holidays, special occasions and of course when we would "decorate" for the holidays. These are the memories I will hold on to. Thank you Anthony & Addonizio family for opening your door and hearts to our family and making us feel like your own. We will miss you terribly Anthony. You were one of a kind, generous, loving, an amazing man. We love you, Yvette, Rob, Kayla and Justino.

Yvette Monaco - March 27 at 12:29 AM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Jonathan Saglam - March 26 at 07:00 PM

“ Barbara Risley lit a candle in memory of Anthony A. Addonizio

Barbara Risley - March 26 at 03:08 PM

“ Anthony and I Went To Public School Together in Brooklyn; He Was Always Very Nice.

Barbara Risley - March 26 at 03:10 PM

“ I will miss you uncle Athony your the best uncle I had, I remember all our funny moments like you slamming Sal in the wall I will miss you and may you Rest In Peace Love you Justin

Justin Monaco - March 26 at 01:53 PM

“ Thank you for being an amazing uncle to my brother and I. I remember all the fun times we had. You were always hard working and positive through this all. I will always remember how strong you were and never stopped fighting. I will miss you - Kayla

kayla monaco - March 26 at 01:50 PM

“ To my good friend & former employee that stuck by my side through thick and thin, Anthony (Bubble Eyes) was a wonderful man that had a big heart & was a hard worker. His love for his family was inspiring to me. i know he will miss Jimmys Restaurant. Bubbles you are greatly missed already, I will always be there for your family like you were with me. Rest in peace my friend .

Love
Rudy D'Ambrisi & Family.

Rudolph D'Ambrisi - March 26 at 11:39 AM

“ P.S. Its breaks my heart not to be able to be there today due to the circumstances.

Rudolph - March 26 at 11:40 AM

“ It is with a heavy heart that I write this. I have wonderful food memories of the many times we shared a meal together. You were a true gentleman and I will never forget the way you made me laugh. You were blessed with a loving family. I'm so sorry I can't be there during these trying times.

Henry Vitiello

Henry Vitiello - March 26 at 02:03 PM

“ So very sorry for the loss you have endured. May you accept our deepest condolences for Anthony. Praying for you all,
The Nico Family

Erika Nico - March 25 at 11:38 PM

“ I just wished that he did not stay in contact with his family and we never met his children we could of shared so many memories of his life growing up

Florinda estrada - March 25 at 09:49 PM

“ My cousin so many great memories growing up it is so sad that we lost contact

Florinda estrada - March 25 at 09:34 PM

“ Anthony was my boss at ranchers best he hired me in June of 2015 when I was desperately looking for a job a kid just getting my cdl License no one would hire me with no experience he Gave me a chance to work do deliveries With the trucks and gain experience driving big vehicles he taught me how to drive manual even tho I grinded the gears horribly lol he used to call me a jerk off everytime is mess up lol especially my tendency to break product give out the wrong stuff and crash the trucks lol I can hear his voice in my head saying it now every Christmas he would buy my family and I a piece of meat and never take money I would often keep him company if I was the last driver back helping him close up the warehouse and drive the trucks to get fixed Anthony was a hard dedicated devoted worker he worked very hard for ranchers and made sure everyone was treated fairly I will miss him terribly he was a good man and I'm proud to say he was my friend world lost a good man last time I saw him was New Years and I told him he'd be ok and beat this and stay strong and I'm he lost his battle heaven gained an Angel and may you Rest In Peace my buddy until we meet again tell my dad up there I said hello and it's not good bye it's so long see you again someday my pal

jeff ferrari - March 25 at 09:23 PM

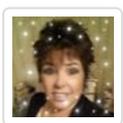

“ Great memories of my cousin we lived in the same building he had a heart of gold wish we would kept in touch you will be missed my heart goes out to your beautiful family RIP Anthony

Marie Addonizio Kovit - March 26 at 10:03 AM

“ His kindness and generosity will never be forgotten, May you rest in peace! Praying for your family!

Joanna and Wilson - March 26 at 12:40 PM

“ My condolences to the family. So sorry for your loss. I met Anthony when we worked together in Danza Supermarket in 1979. He always made me laugh and we used to go dancing at Jasmines in Bay Ridge Brooklyn on the weekends. I have many fond memories of Anthony. May he rest in peace.

Sally Ann Pollio - March 25 at 09:03 PM

“ Anthony was a Sunday morning regular for many years at our bakery. We had the pleasure of watching his children grow up before our eyes. Anthony was always doing something with his family - whether making an early run to Jersey , going to play the numbers with his father in law or delivering newspapers for his sons- his heart was always focused on his family. He was a loving, humble man who will be truly missed by all those who had the pleasure of knowing him. We will miss you Anthony. Sandra, Alyssa, Anthony, and Sal - we are here for you!

Holtermann family - March 25 at 08:21 PM

“ I have never had the Honor to Meet Anthony SR or his loving wife Sandra. But Anthony JR is the love of my niece Amber. Through the years I have been amazed at the young man I had met. His Mother and Father had done such a wonderful job in raising their Sons into such gentleman, also their daughter. They must be so proud, of the wonderful children they raised. I had truly hoped Anthony would beat this illness so I would have the honor of meeting him. God Bless you sir and now you may be the Special Angel looking over their lives now and forever. My deepest condolence to the Family, may God give you the strength to get passed this sad sad time. Love Aunt Gayle

Gayle Bardsley - March 25 at 07:54 PM

“ I was just telling amber about the very first time I met Anthony. It was at the San Genaro feast. I said hi I am Ellen it is a pleasure to meet you can we please take a picture and make fun of Amber that she isn't with us I don't know what he must have thought of me at that point but the last 3 years I have had the pleasure of getting to know him and I consider myself lucky that I did There are no words that can describe how saddened I am not only for his family but for everyone that new him. He was taken way to soon

Ellen Ambrose - March 25 at 06:05 PM

“ Anthony was a truly kind man. The type of guy who would leave his home in the middle of the night if you called stuck on the road. He went out of his way to help others.
The earth has lost a bright light. I guess god needed another angel.
I'll miss you my friend.

May god bless and keep you now and forever.

Rest In Peace
Scott

scott lamont - March 25 at 05:59 PM

“ My heart is broken I am at a loss for words. Anthony had a heart of gold and a generous spirit that was amazing. His love for Sandra, Alyssa, Anthony and Sal was so pure and unwavering that it was truly inspiring to me. Your family has become like my family in recent years. Always know that what ever you need The Bonavita's will always be there for you. We love you guys dearly. Rest In Peace my friend. Love John Jess and Amanda Bonavita.

JohnBonavita - March 25 at 05:51 PM