

Frank Gagliano

June 27, 1965 - May 13, 2020

Frank Gagliano, 54, passed away Wednesday, May 13, 2020 with his loving family by his side.

He was born and raised in the Old Mill Basin section of Brooklyn, and settled in Staten Island last year to live with his brother and family. He was a graduate of South Shore High School.

Frank was a Police Officer for 20 years with the NYC Police Department, He was a devout catholic and lifelong parishioner of Mary Queen of Heaven Church in Brooklyn. He was a devoted son, who took care of his mother and father for many years.

His passion was playing poker, which he was quite good at. Frank traveled the country playing, as well as taking many trips to Atlantic City and Las Vegas. He also enjoyed attending NY Jet games with his brother and friends, which he was a season ticket holder of.

He was the Loving son to Philip and the late Rose. Dear brother to Philip. Fond brother-in-law to Virginia and devoted uncle to Kristen and Danielle.

Frank will be laid to rest in Moravian Cemetery with his mother, Rose.

Cemetery

Moravian Cemetery

2205 Richmond Road

Staten Island, NY, 10306

Comments

“ A tribute video has been added.

John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals Inc. - May 22 at 11:44 AM

“ Frank is a man of few words, however, when he spoke, his words were kind and gentle. This man lived and died a hero. He was a NYPD Police Officer who served the people of our city on September 11, 2001, and many years to follow. He died of a 9-11 Related illness. He fought long and hard. Well done good, and faithful servant. Heaven's gain is our loss. May he rest in peace. May his family and friends live in peace.

Maryanne Behan - May 30 at 08:33 PM

“ 62 files added to the album LifeTributes

John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals Inc. - May 22 at 11:38 AM