“ I worked with George at Day&Meyer & Cirker Hayes and also many private moving jobs on weekends. I was a mover for 42 years and worked with a lot of good guys. George was at the top of the list. He was someone I looked up to and I am so glad for all the times we had together. He was respected by all who knew him and was called "THE KING" for good reason. Sometimes doing a moving job can be tough but if George was there it was a lot easier. We had a lot of laughs, George was a very fun guy to be with and he usually had everyone on the job laughing. He was also a very generous man buying lunch or things that guys were interested in. My father was from Texas and George gave me a beautiful large framed map of Texas that I still have by my front door and see every day My condolences to his large family and many friends. Rest in peace George I will never forget you. Mike McFalls
