“ Letting you go this weekend was another difficult duty the circle of life brings into us . your no longer suffering , in pain or struggling to walk & breathe , you'll be a person who will always be remembered.

My childhood memories, when you bought a $5.00 dog and we named it Duke . Me watching you come home in your police uniform so I can throw u the key , then pretending that I threw it ! Lol later you never thought I can cook but ate everything I gave you and loved it !!

Many great ones my dear . Terrible sadness will remain , but the memories will remain alive with me . Rest in the greatness Heavens ! Loved u genuinely!

“ I met Lauro in 1972 when we experienced an encounter called Jornadas de Vida. Also met his brother Luis during those 3 wonderful days that changed our lives forever. We made the first one in Brooklyn & I'm sure it remained in his heart. He served the Sunset Park community during his tour as a police officer & that's when we would get the chance to speak about family. I didn't really get a chance to know him on the personal level but that moment in our lives connected us forever. I pray & ask for our Lord to comfort his family during this most difficult time in their lives.

“ My dearest dearest,
You are now home, where you will live free .
Where you have become an angel to so many of us left behind. My heart will always have a huge space reserved just for you . In my time of need , there wasn't anyone else I can have thought of calling but you , to come to my Rescue
Today as your in your heavenly home you have taken the best role u ever did , a FATHER to so many . So I ask you find my son and hug him as you did me , because both of you will FOREVER be missed. I love you my dearest . Stay close enough to smell you , stay close enough to watch over those who mean so much .
Rest In Peace our Angel !!

“ My man, Mijito. You are at ease my brother. I've lost my god brother, my cousin, my friend, but I've gained an angel. My heart aches with pain for the family. You were a great man, a great son, a great father, an awesome grandfather. LC you're gonna be missed so dearly to all of us. In my heart & my thoughts you will always remain. I thank you for everything you did for me & our family, I'm forever grateful to you for making my 50th birthday an unforgettable day for me. I did join the Navy & learned how to row a boat. Now you need to row yourself to the King. Love you always & forever. Till we meet again. RIP My Angel.

“ Exemplary man. You who had been around to subtly in silence shape so many lives. We owe you so much, in times of anguish you always has a hand on our shoulders and in times of triumph a gleeful smile. Showed pride in our accomplishments and playfulness in our short comings. You were the proverbial man Millito.
