

Margaret Baldinger

January 28, 1943 - April 19, 2021

Margaret (Peggy) Buckley Baldinger, 78, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend passed away on April 19, 2021, at Staten Island University Hospital of acute pneumonia and COPD.

She is survived by her husband of forty-nine years, Bernie Baldinger; her children Sheila Coyne and her husband Matt, Maggie Baldinger and her wife Kat; her grandchildren Lucy, Lizzie, Caleb, and Abby; her sisters Elizabeth Black, Helen Smith (AI), Joanie Buckley, and her brother Marty Buckley (Ann).

The fifth of nine children, Peggy was born in Brooklyn. She attended the Latin American Institute before becoming a French transliteration secretary working at the United Nations, a job that ignited a lifelong passion for travel. Her adventures took her all over the world from a stint living in Australia to multiple excursions throughout Europe. She loved to talk about her time abroad, reliving the wonderful memories of times spent with friends and family. She was a fantastic cook, an avid reader, and an amazing puzzle solver, specializing in the Sunday NY Times Crossword and the Spelling Bee. She loved great books and British television but above all she loved the people in her life. Peg had a subtle sharp wit, laced with one-liners that were always hilarious but never mean spirited. She was nice and funny and kind and will be so very missed.
