No words can express the sorrow that you must be feeling, but take comfort that your dear husband has returned to his home and will now dwell in the light of the Lord who gave him his existence. *To The Keane Family:
Very sorry to learn of Mike's passing. We worked together in Manhattan South Narcotics in the late 70s. Mike was a true gentleman. He was a steady force in a world of aggressive inexperienced Narco Cops. A role model to all in the unit. Although we haven't spoken in many years I still feel sorrow for his loss. He was a wonderful man. He will be missed. He and all his family are in my prayers. May God bless and receive him.

“ Through marriage, I became part of Mike's family and he became part of mine. In those times we were together, I found Mike to be an upright, honest person with great character and faith. Whether sharing a round of golf or a glass of wine, it was easy for me to consider Mike a friend. RIP Mike. Prayers for you and your family.

“ I will always remember Uncle Mike as an incredibly positive person, smiling and laughing with something nice to say to everyone. He was my Dad's best friend since high school and we always considered him family. I didn't know about all of his amazing achievements but am not surprised. He was an honorable, good man and will be greatly missed by many. Aunt Rita, Jimmy, Danny and Michael, our hearts go out to you and we are thinking of you and praying for you. We hope all of your good memories of your wonderful Dad will bring you comfort.

“ I worked with Mike as a NYPD Detective. A true gentleman. His moral compass always seemed to be pointing in the right direction. If I had a nickel for every time he said "Christmas" instead of cursing, I'd be a little richer than I am for knowing Mike.
