Family matriarch of Eltingville dies at 93

Rosalie T. Cucinelli, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on October 12, 2019.

The family matriarch (Lovingly called Ruby) was born December 16, 1925 in Milford Connecticut. As a young woman, she moved with her family to St. George Staten Island to be close to the Navy Pier as her brother was in the Navy during WW 2. She met and married her husband Red in 1953 and moved briefly to Jersey City. Ruby moved back to Staten Island in 1958 and settled in New Dorp then Eltingville where she lived in the same house for over 55 years.

Ruby was an LPN and a private care nurse. Ruby also volunteered at the former Richmond Memorial Hospital as a baby rocker. She was a member of BPW - Business and Professional Women's organization and was honored as Woman of Year in the 90's. She lived life to the fullest.

She had a passion for entertaining and was known for her annual Christmas bash and summer parties. As the years went on, Ruby took to wintering in Pompano Beach, Florida and summering on Staten Island. Ruby was kind and loving especially to children and animals. There always a new kitten or dog at her home and lollipops for the children. She loved to travel and enjoyed many cruises and trips to Europe.

Ruby is survived by her two sons Robert and Edward Cucinelli, daughter in law Trish Cucinelli and 4 nieces and nephews, 5 great nieces and nephews and 8 great, great nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by her adopted son Henry Grossman, husband Herman (Red), two sisters and two brothers.

A Memorial Mass will be at 8:00 AM, on Saturday October 19, 2019 at Holy Child Church located at 4747 Amboy Rd Staten Island, New York 10312.
