“ Best guy in the neighborhood. His family was our families friend. He was my oldest brothers friend but we always talked when I lived in Brooklyn. My parents loved and respected Alfred since he was in elementary school. Was always on the look out for my dad's safety while I was at work. Will be dearly missed on this earth since they do not have guys like Alfred anymore.

I was shocked to read about your passing Al, so soon after Tommy. All those years we worked together at Owens, and then after they closed you went to work for Frankie in Long Island City. Rest in Peace my friend, I will never forget the times we spent together
