“ My Uncle Andy - what can I say . . . He was my Mom's younger brother, who she helped raise and doted on most of her life - the love and connection those siblings had was REAL! As for the Cavosi Family goes, he was one of the very best and a great uncle! He was truly blessed with a wonderful family: his wife, his children, his grandkids and his beautiful great-granddaughter! I will miss his enthusiasm over politics, scratch offs, his decorating skills, and most of all his strong gamble for life - - He Did It His Way and he will be forever missed; I trust he is resting in peace with his Big Sis!
Sincerely, Carol - Martin & Christina
