“ I have wonderful memories of my dear friend Andy. I've know him since I was living in Brooklyn he lived around the corner from me. We really became friends when he started dating my best friend Kathy! We did a lot of great things together I was there made of honor at there wedding. We were inseparable in those days. When Kathy gave birth to their first child Kathleen it was a great day Andy was so proud. When Andrew was born he was so excited to have a son. My best friend Kathy passed away, way to young and I really never got over that to this day.I look at her picture every morning still hurts. Now I know that Andy is with the love of his life and he is at peace!We will never forget the good times together Rest In Peace my friend we love you.Till we meet again
