“ We will never forget our cousin Angela the way she helped us look for a house on Staten Island. When we moved in January 2006, she and Steve were there early in the morning and helped us clean and order lunch for the movers and anyone else who were there that day. She was a kind and caring person who we well never forget.

The Cataldo Family - July 20, 2023 at 06:35 PM

I am so terribly sorry for your loss. I grew up with Angela and she always was such a wonderful person. We ran into each other here and there throughout the years and it was always so nice to see her and catch up. She had such a special kind way about her that always made you feel good being in her company. The video is so beautiful and I know she will be truly truly missed!! She has been in my thoughts and prayers since I heard the news.
