

Angela M. Giordano

May 27, 1947 - July 21, 2016

Angela M. Giordano, 69, of Huguenot, past away on Thursday, July 21, 2016, at Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital in Manhattan. She was born Tuesday, May 27, 1947 in the Bronx and was the daughter of the late John and Domenica Cioffi.

Angela worked at the South Shore YMCA as a pre-school teacher for 25 years. She truly loved working with children and held a special "cooking with kids class" regularly. She was known as "Miss Angela" by her students.

Angela adored her friends and held an annual holiday party with them. She also enjoyed trips to Atlantic City. She loved to cook on the holidays and every holiday was special because she would create a "winter wonderland" for Christmas and was known to always over-cook for Thanksgiving.

The role she loved in life most was "Nana" to her granddaughter, Lauren Frankie. She loved to babysit and spend time with her. She also enjoyed dogsitting Bailey.

There was no one quite like her. She lit up the room with her infectious laugh and left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

She is Survived by her loving daughter, Christy Corr, her dear son-in-law Colin

Corr and her cherished granddaughter, Lauren Frankie Corr. She is also survived by three brothers and one sister.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10:00 a.m. on Monday at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church located at 5411 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Sunday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.

“ My son had her years ago for a variety of YMCA classes. She nicknamed him The Professor, because she said he knew so much for such a little kid. He's 23 now and working toward his doctorate degree. He plans to become just that, a professor. I wish she knew how right she was all those years ago. My condolences to her family. May she rest in peace.

“ *I remember how she would make the kids potatoes and eggs, she always made her students feel like they were going to grandma's house and not school.... This not only help the children but help the moms leave their children for most of us it was the first time. She will always be remembered...RIP 🙏👤

“ *Miss Angela. I will never forget the time we rode around the class rooms in the wheelie book cases. And the times we had no classes so we went to Starbucks and Annie says and Macy's. I never laughed so hard when we decided to link straws together so we can sip hot coffee after the memo went out for no hot drinks in the classroom. We danced and marched to mama Mia for months on end. You gave me the nickname JAWS because I was always snacking on something. I loved your potato and eggs and how you cooked me a homemade breakfast on my birthday right in the classroom. I will miss you and I cherish all the memories we shared.
