“ Happy Birthday in Heaven sweet Angela. FB brought us together & our talks & posts made a great friendship. I'm so sorry you are gone too soon. We are same age and talked about our children all the time. I miss that & miss you. Love to your family & hope you're dancing in the sky my friend. ❤️💔

“ I can't believe you're gone. When you came to pathmark with Giselle you we're so full of life and always had a new story to tell me. You gave me advice about so many things. Such a remarkable woman, beautiful inside and out. You raised such a tough, strong minded little girl. Shes going to make you proud. Rest sweetly ang.

“ I just heard of Angela's passing and am still in shock. I don't know what happened to this vibrant lovely lady. She was an inspiration to me and loved our Lord and Savior. I know she is with him but Oh God how we will miss her. I only knew her through FB but she asked to be my friend and I accepted and am so thankful I did. Prayers for all of her family So so sorry.

“ I just learned of Angela's passing . My Heart is broken. I know Angela and her family for many years, She was always upbeat and positive, never had a bad word to say about anyone. She was a great, kind and loving person and I know many will miss her. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family, I am truly sorry for your loss. She has left us far too soon. May god bless her and keep her in his fold.

“ My dearest Angela, forgive me for not coming to see you, this day, December 16, 2014. knowing I would not be able to handle the brunt reality of seeing you in that state. In fact, I don't want to consider it, knowing it's true but unable to realize it.

There are never words adequate in moments like these. The memories of Angela will help to sustain, Joann, Nick, Gisselle and those who cherished Angela, as well as all her family, at this most difficult time.

I read from the Staten Island Advance, Angela was an avid reader and also enjoyed shopping. Anyone who was blessed to know Angela knew all too well how splendidly charming and loving she was. Angela was a giver, an inspirational woman who shared her writings, quotes, and was very much a consultant to others. She desired all genres. Angela would say how much she covet to study philosophy. Formerly, Angela asked me to one day teach her coding languages in computer programming, to teach her how to build a custom fishing rod for Gisselle and herself. She would tell me stories about her father taking her hunting and fishing. Angela was brilliant, a genius, but foremost, dedicated to her daughter Gisselle, her brother Nick and mother Joann. It is impossible to add the voluminous achievements and qualities of Angela in this short time or page.

“ *My deepest condolences to Joanne. As a mother myself I cannot say I know how you are feeling losing your beautiful daughter but I can only imagine to a small degree the pain you must feel. I have prayed to our Virgin Mother of Fatima who appeared on the day Angela was born October 13th that She comfort you now and watch over Gisselle. Angela was very close to the Virgin Mother as she and I had many talks about this. Be at peace knowing that you taught her our Catholic faith well and she held it in her heart. With all my love. I have so many wonderful memories of my Ang and all of them as they relate to just her and I are filled with laughter and joy. She had two nicknames for me, Muffin and Little Sheba. What I would not give to hear her say "Muffin its me, where are you, okay let me try this, Little Sheba, where is my Little Sheba"? this was a typical voicemail message from my little Shorty. I miss her so much. I will spend the next years trying to tell Gisselle the wonderful mother and human being she was and recreating for her along with the other many close friends who loved her mommy exactly what she hoped and dreamed for her baby girl. When I would ask Angela how Gisselle was, she would answer "oh Cindy I am in love with her". When Angela was pregnant she used to take a bus from Staten Island to Manhatten and I used to think, that girl is so solid what she does for her family, I really admire her. I miss you my dear friend and love you always. Don't worry about Gisselle, she has many aunts who love her. Love to all the family and many prayers.
