“ Flo, Michael, Thomas and families, I am so sorry for your loss. I wish I could be there with you all! We are sending our love from afar! I will cherish all of my memories of Aunt Angie and all the summer's I spent with them in Brooklyn as a child. May the peace of knowing that she is free from her earthy body and is now soaring up to the heavens and on her way to meet her love, fill your hearts during this most difficult time. Holding you all in the light of love.
