

Angelina C. Plantz

January 29, 1933 - April 12, 2016

Angelina C. Plantz, a devoted mother and grandmother, passed away on Tuesday, April 12, 2016, at Staten Island University Hospital North in Staten Island, New York. She was 83.

She was born Sunday, January 29, 1933 in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn. She also lived in Boro Park and settled in Eltingville in 1995. Angelina was the daughter of the late Joseph and Caterina Comito. She was predeceased by her husband, Peter, who died in 2006.

Angelina was a parishioner of Holy Child Church. She enjoyed playing Bingo, playing cards, doing crossword puzzles and crocheting. Her greatest attribute was her love for her family and her generous spirit for always being there for others.

She was the beloved mother of Linda McClenahan and her husband Terrence and Joseph Plantz and his wife Wendy. Dear sister of Rosemarie DellaCerra and Mary Holmes. Devoted grandmother of Joseph and his wife Christine, Diana, Bree, Jessica, Marino, Wendy, Jo Jo and the late David. Cherished great grandmother of Matthew.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday at Holy Child Church located at 4747 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York. Interment will be in Green-Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn, NY.

The family will receive friends from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. on Friday at The John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd. (at Eltingville Station), Staten Island, New York.

“ My Nanny by Joseph C. Plantz

Your unconditional love and selflessness had no bounds,

You showed me a mother's love all year round.

*No matter what I did right or wrong,
you still loved me all day long.*

*You were proud of me for who I am,
You ignored my faults as a man.*

*You were always there to console me when I was sad,
The bond we shared was iron clad.*

*Words cannot express how deeply you will be missed,
Never to be forgotten never to be dismissed.*

*The only solace I can find,
Is that I will hold you close in my heart until the end of time.*
