

Angelo Argentieri

May 21, 1927 - May 13, 2018

Angelo Argentieri, 90 of Eltingville, passed away on Sunday, May 13, 2018, at Staten Island University Hospital.

Angelo was born in Manhattan on May 21, 1927, the day Charles Lindbergh completed the first solo trans-Atlantic flight.

Angelo married his wife Marie in 1952 and they lived in Brooklyn until 2000 when they relocated to Staten Island. They were married 61 years until Marie's death in 2014. Together they raised three children, Joanne, Loretta and Joseph.

Angelo proudly served his country in the Army as an Occupation Troop member. He was stationed in Austria and served for two years during WWII.

Upon his return from service Angelo found work in the glass industry. He spent the majority of his career as a glass artisan cutting and shaping glass for Tiffany fixtures.

An avid baseball fan, Angelo followed the Mets and the Yankees but in his heart, he was a Yankee fan just like his beloved wife Marie.

He is survived by his three children and their spouses. Joanne and John Mooney, Loretta and Jerry Summerer and Joseph and Sally Argentieri. His three grandchildren, Michael and his wife Jessica, Laura and Christine. And his two great-grandchildren Sofia and Michael.
