

Angelo Regina

December 22, 1939 - April 19, 2020

Angelo Regina, 80, beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather, Brother, Uncle, and Cousin passed away from complications of diabetes April 19, 2020. Angelo had a larger than life personality and captivated everyone with his stories and sarcastic humor. He was very proud of his humble beginnings and how his work ethic paved the way for his wife and family. He was born to Rocco and Rose Regina, who immigrated from Bari, Italy. He was born in Brooklyn and moved to Staten Island as a teenager. Here he met the love of his life, Barbara Mastrolonardo, and married her 55 years ago. Together they raised three children and were blessed with ten grandchildren.

In 1960, Angelo and his brother, Anthony, owned and operated R&S Meat Market in Dongan Hills. Then in 1988 Angelo, along with his son Rocco, opened Regina Annadale Meat Market where his son, nephew, and grandsons carry on his legacy. He was loved by all his costumers who still ask for him to this day.

Angelo loved his family and was so proud of all his grandchildren; he never hesitated to brag about them.

Angelo is survived by his devoted and loving wife Barbara; son Rocco and wife Elizbeth; daughters Rosebeth Guarino and husband Joseph; Margi-Ann Bernabeo and husband Tommy; ten adoring grandchildren: Angelo, Jenna-Rose, Kaitlyn and Robert Regina; Amanda, Alexa and Adriana Guarino;

Robbie, Angela and Ava-Marie Bernabeo. He is also survived by brothers Marino and Anthony, sister Clara Bruno and many cousins as well as brothers and sisters in law; he was predeceased by his brother Rocco Regina.

Family was Angelo's most prized possession. He leaves behind his words of wisdom, "Look at your family; if you don't have them, you have nothing."

The family is planning a memorial for a future date.
