“ May Anita, “grandma”, rest in peace. I will truly miss our family dinners where we would laugh and make silly jokes all night. Grandma would always have a witty comment! We loved her stories, her laughs, and even her sassy attitude! Not a day goes by when you are not loved and missed. May she be at peace and watching over us everyday. We will miss you and love you always grandma ❤️

“ It is with extreme sorrow that my family and I have had to say good-bye to my mother, only three years after my father. My heart is heavy and I truly wish that we never had to experience loss...

I have memories of a fun-loving, silly mother who enjoyed playing cards and being sarcastically witty. If you knew my mom, you would know that she loved to sit down and have a drink while cracking jokes. She truly was one of a kind. Some people know that under the wall she put up was a woman who faced many challenges and had to overcome adversity to the best of her ability. My mother suffered in silence for years and now as an adult I've come to realize how truly strong and courageous she was. She fought very hard each day to keep a smile on her face.

In my mother's death, I've learned quite a few things:

- 1. Perseverance through adversity can get you past dark days.*
- 2. Always love and care for your family!!*
- 3. Don't ever lose or let your faith waiver.*
- 4. Never forget what is most important in life.. family!*

Often, in difficult times there are powerful lessons to be learned... The gift of life is truly a blessing, which should never be taken for granted. In the blink of an eye things can change for better or for worse. So always have compassion and show love because you never know what someone is going through.

I find comfort in knowing my mother and father are finally together again; along with all our departed loved ones. I also hope my mom is at peace and her struggles are at an end. Mom will live on in our memories and hearts forever. I will always be proud to call myself *the daughter of Anita Louise Buffa. I love and I'll miss you mom...

rest in peace* ❤️

*With love,
Darlene, Guy,
Michael, Dana & Gianna*
