“ A memory...?

Remember when we saw Kenny's grandmother in Long Island and me and Tommy were figuring in the car and threatened us to put a horseshoe crab in the back seat if we didn't stop.

How about when I put in plug in the outlet for the jacuzzi wet...

How about your cat Tabitha, wouldn't come out from the bathroom cubby for no one but me?

The holidays where you would cook countless hours for everyone.

I can keep going but there's not enough room.

My dearest cousin, friend. How can one woman be so sweet and so courageous goes beyond words. I'll miss you and all our laughing. Thank you for the memories, I take comfort in knowing you're flying with the angels, dancing, joining the family fun once again. Until we meet again please look after all your loved ones here on earth...

“ Mom, I am still in shock hearing the news of your passing. Im sorry you went through so much in the last 15 or so years. I know im your oldest son and couldn't do as much as Frankie did. I owe Frankie a huge thank you for your love and endless support for our Mom. I know your gone but im glad your pain and suffering are no more. You can finally Rest In Peace. Cocoa and myself are going to miss you.
