“ Dearest Godmother,

Rest in peace! I pray the Lord will be as generous to you as you were to us during your lifetime. I will always remember going to the park with you, Johnny Joe and Ann Marie and coming home to fudge. How kind of you were to carry the orange juice to our picnics at Clove Lake. Your constant regard for what we had to say as children and the respect you gave us in response. You fought the "good fight" all your life and gave it your all. You have always been a model for me - "Never Surrender". Rest now my dear lady and friend. I will never forget you. Thank you...love you. Gerard and Janis

Our love and sympathies to John Joe, Ann Marie and Robert and to all your grandchildren.
