“ I have fond memories of Aunt Anita! I remember as a little child that we would travel north to visit family...Aunt Anita was always smiling and cheerful toward us. I remember going to the beach on Long Island and playing in the sand while my aunt and my mom talked and laughed at us playing. My mom told me it was Aunt Anita that gave her the idea of naming me Christine... and I love my name. She was always smiling and calmly enjoying the love and camaraderie of family. As I got older, I loved to hear old stories of the family she and mom would tell. It was sweet to watch the two of them together. Wonderful memories!
