

Anna Maria Piccione

December 15, 1954 - December 6, 2020

Anna Maria Piccione, age 65, went home to heaven surrounded by her loving family on December 6, 2020.

Anna Maria was born on December 15, 1954 in Brooklyn, New York to her parents Vincent and Nancy Marrone. She is survived by her husband of 38 years, Alex Piccione, and daughter Natalie Piccione.

She worked in the Garment District in New York City for many years before marrying Alex and giving birth to Natalie. She regarded God and her family together as her greatest love and the most important part of her life.

She was a devoted wife and mother and treasured every moment spent with family, and family dogs and family church. Anna Maria, Alex and Natalie helped grow a ministry in Coney Island for the homeless and in 6 years served over 30,000 free meals to the needy.

She attended and graduated from New Utrecht High School, having participated with her beautiful voice in the Sweet Adeline's choir and Trinity Church choir, where she met Alex. Anna Maria, Alex and Natalie attended Bible college as a family team for several years as they grew closer together in Christ, The ministry of Love One Another.

Anna Maria's interests were her joy and included bible study, worship and prayer, culinary arts, singing in her beautiful soprano voice, knitting, tending to her home, garden and garden farm, doctoring the family dogs, spending time with horses, feeding sparrows and caring for injured animals. She celebrated God's awesome creation by giving of herself to tending all that God brought into her life.

There are no words to describe the enormity of the mutual unconditional love Anna Maria shared with Alex and Natalie. Until that heavenly reunion, perfect love will endure and sustain the brokenhearted.

A Graveside service will be held at 12:00 PM on Friday at Resurrection Cemetery located at 361 Sharrott Avenue Staten Island, New York 10309.

“ I love my sister-in-law Anna Maria with a perfect everlasting love that endures even now. And I know we will be together again because we believe God’s promise of salvation and the resurrection of all who confess to not worshipping God and then accept the offer of forgiveness from Jesus Christ before we pass away from earth. Anna Maria received forgiveness, as did I and we worship God. The bible is a book of God’s laws and promises, one of which states “When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall you also appear with him in glory.” By faith, Anna Maria and I both know that is God’s irrefutable Word. Anna Maria is not here. Her spirit is with Jesus Christ. The book of Job declares ‘I know my Redeemer liveth and though my body return to dust, yet I will see him in my flesh.’ That is resurrection of the dead who are redeemed. And this is the grace of God that Jesus Christ offers to all who believe and receive. May Jesus Christ be praised.

“ I can sit here and write about all the memories I have with mama P. But frankly those are just too many. I will forever remember her smile. Oh god and those juicy cheek kisses and cozy hugs whenever she saw me. She was a beauty with a pure heart, funny and so sweet. May you rest peacefully mama P. I'm so grateful we crossed paths here on earth and hope to meet again so I can feel those hugs and kisses once again.

“ Anna Maria was a typical Italian mother, she raised her daughter the same way as my mom did. I am going to miss a strong inspiring mother, and most importantly she always had my back, I'm gonna miss that. Mamma penguin may u always keep Natalie and her dad safe as a great guardian Angel you will be. Tell my dad I said I miss him and no golf lectures!! May we see each other again!
