

Anne Baratta

December 23, 1930 - September 12, 2020

Anne C. Radgowski of Eltingville passed away at home on Saturday September 12th, surrounded by her loving family. Born and raised on Staten Island she was the beloved daughter of the late Pasquale and Margaret De Martino. A woman who was devoted to her family, she was known as being a meticulous housekeeper . She was a very proud lady who took great pride in her appearance and always made sure she looked her best. She was an avid dancer and was a member of the Staten Island Ballroom Dancers. She enjoyed traveling, especially taking cruises. She was a huge admirer of President Trump and the only television channel allowed to air in her home was Fox News Network.

She was predeceased by her husbands; Nicholas, Patrick and Vincent. She was the loving mother of Diane Casaccio, Phylis Quinn and John Baratta. Dearest sister of Joseph and Tony De Martino and the late Carmela Giordano. She is also survived by her 6 grandchildren and her 5 great grandsons.

A gathering of family and friends will be held at the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals on Monday from 5-9pm. A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered on Tuesday 10 am at the Church of The Holy Child. Entombment will follow in Moravian Cemetery.

Due to Covid 19 restrictions placed upon us, masks must be worn when entering the funeral home and while inside the funeral home. Capacity is limited to 40 people, so you are respectfully asked to exit the funeral home after paying your respects to allow others entry.

“ So sorry this poor woman never had an opportunity to know her grandchildren. Such a shame no one ever took the time to get to know her
