

Anne F. Luisi

February 16, 1928 - March 8, 2020

Anne Luisi, nee Gurgone, 92, formerly of Eltingville passed away on March 8, 2020, at Monmouth University South Hospital in Lakewood, NJ. She was the loving wife of the late Angelo Luisi. Anne was born in Manhattan and grew up in the Bronx but lived most of her life on Staten Island.

She loved reading, playing cards with friends, bingo, traveling, and spending time with her family. In addition, she enjoyed her Silver Sneakers exercise at the local YMCA. She was usually the organizer among her friends whether it be planning vacations and day trips or getting a group together to attend a local event.

Happy memories were created as family gathered at her home for amazing Italian dinners and much laughter. She was the center of our family; a woman of strength with a good dose of spunk.

Anne held several positions outside the home but the one she enjoyed the most was her time as Assistant Editor of the prestigious Carriage Association Journal. She started out as a secretary to the Colonel but soon took on greater and greater responsibilities handling membership inquiries, supervising subscriptions and overseeing the mechanics of putting together a quarterly publication.

She will be dearly missed by her brother, Michael Gurgone of Great Kills, her daughter, Carol and son-in-law, Marc Barnett of Atlantic Highlands NJ; her daughter Donna and son-in-law Daniel Fox from Nazareth PA and her son, Michael, and daughter-in-law Regina Luisi from Clarksburg, NJ. Anne was a loving and devoted "Gramm" to her 6 grandchildren-Nick, Anne, Erin, Julie, Monica and Michael.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 11:00 AM on Saturday at Holy Child Church located at 4747 Amboy Road Staten Island, New York 10312
