“ Remembering my dear Aunt Nancy today and sending condolences to Uncle Bobby and cousins.... She was regularly in my thoughts throughout life and will remain so beyond. What I associate most with her are thoughtfulness, compassion, and humor. After Nanny Sullivan died in 1997, Aunt Nancy returned to whoever gave them certain gifts Nanny had received over the years. That Aunt Nancy thought to do this, and remembered who gave what, touched and amazed me.

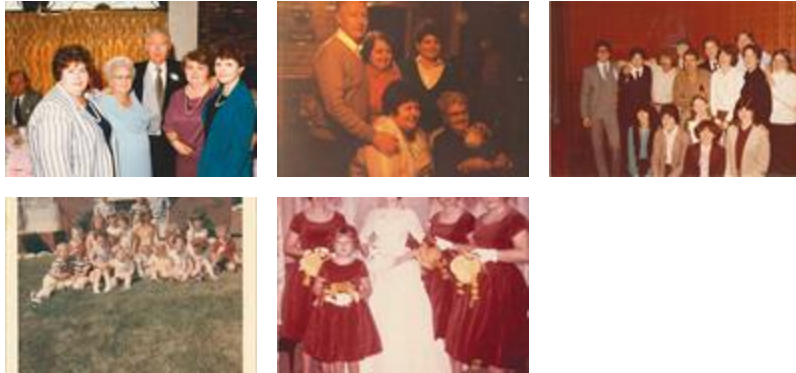

Because she was concerned with the welfare of others, especially children, Aunt Nancy tended to worry. A lot! Her compassion extended to the world beyond her family -- quite a burden to carry. She could not always find her way past things because she cared so deeply. For everyone. But, she also had a wonderful sense of humor. We didn't talk often -- "Oh, Eileen, you'll run up a big bill." But when we did, it was always worth the dime! If you could get her to chuckle at something, it was infectious. She had a warm sense of humor and a hearty laugh. She could be great fun!

Although I will miss her and our talks, I take comfort in knowing that she is at peace. No more worries, Aunt Nancy! You rest, now.

“ Nancy was my big sister. They tell me when I was born, she was charging the neighborhood kids to come and see me. On my last birthday, she left a singing Happy Birthday on my phone. I will make sure that never is erased.

As a teenager, she loved to dance and sing. Her best friend was Helen Corbett Riley. They were like two peas in a pod and married twin brothers, Bob and Bill.

Illness took its toll on Nancy over the past several years, during which time Bob showed his love and devotion every day. Hopefully, God will reward Bob for the loving way in which he cared for my sister. Her children are her greatest legacy. No one could have a more devoted or caring family. Rest in peace. I love you. Bernadette
