“ Dear Maureen and family, I am saddened that Anthony has passed on. To me, he will always be remembered as a dedicated, kind and loving person. We hardly ever got to visit often, but he was always family. You, your kids and grandchildren were lucky to have him in your life and will always have him in your memories. Memories last forever as will his love for all of you. Sincerely, JoJo Di Rosa Di Gennaro (Joanne's sister)

“ Sending our heartfelt prayers and condolences to Maureen and the family. You were our dear neighbor, the first to greet us when we were considering purchasing the land/house to be built right next door to you. Who knew that fellow Staten Islanders would be right next door to each other in SC. I'm so glad we finally were able to get together to have that drink and I'm hopeful that I can be a dear friend to Maureen in the future. She was truly blessed to have you in her life. I loved to banter and tell stories for the few times we met up outside the houses. May you rest in peace and I'm counting on you to watch over my house and yours from God's heavenly home. Sending hugs to Maureen. Love Elaine and Tom Driscoll.

“ My contacts with Anthony over the years were few, brief and casual. I knew about him through my long time friends Ralph, his brother and Joanne, his sister in law, who spoke of their affection and high regard for Anthony and of his kind, caring nature and his love for family and deep faith in God. I recall with admiration how he refused to remove bible verses displayed on the lawn of his home in Marlboro NJ despite community complaints, as related to me by Ralph and Joanne. Anthony's family is deeply grieved by his passing but can find comfort and consolation in knowing that their beloved Anthony is now receiving a joyous welcome in our Lord's heavenly kingdom where one day, they will all be once again reunited.
