“ One of the nicest men who has ever lived. Tony, as I affectionately called him, was a kind, thoughtful, generous and loving person devoted to his late wife Marietta and his family. He will never be forgotten.

Anthony (Tony) and Marietta were the first friends I made on the block when I moved here in 1976. Tony was a wonderful man, husband, father, grandfather and friend. I will always cherish the memories I have and will keep them in my heart forever. RIP Tony knowing how much you were loved and will be missed.
