February 1, 1950 - April 12, 2020

Anthony "Tony" Catapano, 70 of Staten Island, New York died on Sunday, April 12, 2020, at Staten Island University Hospital North in Staten Island, New York.

Born Wednesday, February 1, 1950 in Brooklyn, New York, he was the son of the late Joseph Catapano and Filomena Silano Catapano.

Raised in Brooklyn Tony attended St. Stephen's High school and Baruch College.

Following School Tony met and married the Former Nancy Dedario. Tony spent a 26 year career with the Department of Sanitation as a Sanitation worker at BK 7 garage before his retirement.

In his free time, Tony enjoyed occasional trips to Atlantic City. A dedicated Yankee fan, and lover of oldies music, he also enjoyed old movies, but more than anything Tony valued every minute spent with his family. They were his greatest treasure.

Beloved husband of 36 years to the late Nancy Catapano who passed away in 2014.

Loving father of Tara Catapano and the late Joseph Catapano, who sadly passed away just 6 months ago in October.

Dear brother of Millie Stucchio, Joann Muller and the late Cecelia Malerba who passed away in April of last year.

Cherished grandfather of Joie Catapano and was anxiously awaiting his second grandchild, on the way.

Devoted uncle to many nieces and nephews and friend to all who knew him.

Interment will take place at Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island. A Memorial Mass in Memory of Tony will take place in the upcoming months.

“ A shared memory. Well, that would be hard because there are so many for this wonderful man. Some would say he was a great neighbor, and he was, but more than that. He was a great friend. Always there to help, always there to talk to and never, ever made you feel like you were bothering him. He looked out for my family and we looked out for his. He is missed and will be missed forever. He was one of a kind and still can't believe he is gone. But he will NEVER be forgotten. Tara and family my deepest condolences to you all. We are just a house away and will always be here for you. Love and prayers The Vella Family.

“ My sincerest condolences and prayer to all of Anthony's family. "May the Angels lead you into paradise: may the martyrs receive you at your coming, and lead you into the holy city, Jerusalem. May the choir of Angels receive you, and with Lazarus, who once was poor, may you have everlasting rest." Anthony now rests with the Lord who he adored in this life.
