

Anthony Dalelio

October 26, 1945 - August 8, 2020

Anthony Joseph (Butchie) Dalelio of Grant City, passed away on Saturday August 8 2020 at Addeo House . Born in Brooklyn to the late Joseph and Mary, Anthony served proudly in the United States Army from 1965 through 1967. He worked for J.P. Morgan Chase Bank as Vice President of their Securities and Treasury Bureau.

Anthony was devoted to his family, and his greatest joy was found being with his siblings, nieces, nephews and their children. Anthony was very outgoing and friendly, always stopping and taking time to speak with his neighbors . He had a great passion and love for animals, especially dogs. Anthony enjoyed getting together with his Army buddies and keeping their friendships alive. In his spare time he enjoyed reading and being out in the sun. His only guilty pleasure was his love of Cadillacs. He would lease a new car every year and return it with only having driven 4,000 miles.....

He was predeceased by his parents Joseph and Mary and his Sister Dolores Magrone, and his niece Kim Courtney. He is survived by his loving sister Marie Pancetti and his numerous nieces, nephews and his great nieces and nephews who always referred to him as Uncle Butchie.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11:15 am Wednesday at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, Interment will follow in Moravian Cemetery with Military Honors. A gathering of family and friends will take place on Wednesday morning from 8:30- 10:30 am at the John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals. “ *My Deepest Sympathy to the Family!

Tony and I became friends when I started working @ Manufacturer's Hanover Trust in 1987 , we spoke almost everyday and can continued even after he retired . I last spoke to Tony on Thursday and am thankful I got to hear his voice n get in a few laughs . I will miss those phone calls but the memories will be forever. Rest In Peace my dear friend . 🙏 Jeanette*
