“ We lived directly across Lenzie Street from your Aunt Connie and Uncle Larry from 1996-2017. I have the fondest memories of your wonderful father, who never failed to have a dog treat available for our not always welcoming pup!!! Your father was a beautiful soul, and a devoted younger brother to Aunt Connie, especially after the loss of Uncle Larry. He told me he was only returning the love and care he had received as a youngster from his beloved older sister. It was touching. May your wonderful father Rest in Peace and May memories of happy times help fill the void of your loss. Our sincere sympathy, Beth and Stu Gitlin
