“ I am heartbroken to hear about the loss of Anthony. He was a kind, thoughtful person who loved his family very much. His smile would light up a room. I met Anthony over 20 years ago through work and became friends instantly. He came to visit me in the hospital when I was battling cancer - staying with me for hours until I feel asleep. He will forever be in my heart.

“ I just found out about this. My heart goes out to Anthony's family and everyone who loved him and who he loved and cared about. My condolences to Anthony's family and friends. Anthony hired me in 2001 and I worked both for and with Anthony for 10+ years. We kept in touch from time to time after. Anthony immediately came across as a genuine person and someone who was very relatable to me and my background and even family to some extent. Anthony set up the job interview at the Unicorn diner and we basically just spoke over a cup of coffee most of the time standing on the steps of the diner entrance, lol. We hit it off right away. It felt more like I was meeting up with a friend to plan the Lufthansa heist instead of an interview for a Telecom job. Anthony was always real, direct and himself which is appreciated in a person. What I know is that Anthony was a loving and caring human being. He always spoke very highly of his family; especially his wife at the time and his children. Anthony was an absolute pleasure to be around and always had a smile on his face regardless of how stressful things may have been at work. I'm sure he is watching over his family and friends and will be by his children's side for eternity. God Bless and Rest in Peace!

“ I knew Anthony from the day he was born and then lived on 67th street in Brooklyn. I babysat for him when he was just a tot. Saw him grow into a wonderful man. I attended his wedding, then saw his children when they were born. I pray & hope Anthony will rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord Jesus. I hope that all who grieve for Anthony will find comfort in memories of time together. I am so sorry for your loss, please accept our condolences. May God help you through this difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Arlene De Simone & Bill Gilmore.
