“ My deepest condolences to Anthony’s family, and nephew who I got to talk to so many times! I work at the All American Assisted Living as a Concierge, and many times Anthony would manage to come to the front desk to talk to me. An amazing person to talk to! Always listening to me to my stories, and one day he told me, I like talking to you!! That moved me so much you cannot imagine! I miss him terribly and certainly miss not seeing him by the front desk while I have my shift there. Tom! My condolences!! Heaven has a new Resident now. Sincerely, Ileana
