

Anthony T. Marchese

November 21, 1932 - August 12, 2016

Anthony Marchese, 83 of Great Kills, formerly of Brooklyn, passed away on Friday, August 12, 2016 surrounded by his loving family.

Anthony was known to his family and friends as "Tony" or "Curly". He proudly served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict.

Tony fell in love and married his sweetheart, Emily, on December 11, 1955. They celebrated 60 wonderful years of marriage in December of 2015. Anthony worked for 40 years for AT&T, retiring in 1989. After retirement, he also worked for Atlantic Express Bus Co. for 10 years. Tony and Emily spent over 20 years as "snowbirds" in Florida.

He enjoyed traveling with his wife, especially Hawaii, Italy and Aruba. He was an avid Yankee fan, but what was most important to him was time spent with family and friends.

He was known for his wonderful smile, his great sense of humor and the ability to make everyone laugh.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Emily, his children Dr. Charles Marchese and his wife, Kim and Karen Marsala and her husband, Charles and his grandchildren, Charles, Francesca, Isabella, Amanda, Emily, Julianne and Charles.

A Mass of Christian Burial will take place on Monday at 10:00 a.m. at St. Patrick's Church. A gathering of family and friends will take place on Sunday from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m.

“ All i could say about tony is that he was the warmist person you ever want to meet we laught all the time together and he smile was infectious he loved to dance and be with people we will miss him oh so much". He loved listening to the oldies which i was known for i would bring my radio to the pool and play 50's" music and he would love it . He loved life and loved to hear jokes especially my husband Sal always had a new joke for him. We will miss you Tony so much but always in our hearts you will never be forgotten. My little friend tony. Rest in peace. Love Always Alice & Sal

“ For 37 years the most wonderful neighbor and friend anyone could ever ask for. He never judged, never pried, always had a smile for you, always wanted to help. My memory is full of all the many projects that we shared together . . . from painting our houses, trying to fix one another's carburetor, putting up my utility shed, watering our tomato plants, and, of course, Anthony was the keeper of "our flag."
