“ The first time I met Tony was on the job (Con Edison) Anthony was a character always snapping and goofing around making the shift pass away with fun, but always doing the job. I had a rough time for a period of time, but Anthony never changed his approach to our friendship. When I think about Tony I will always remember him as being a true blue Friend who will be sorely missed. Rest easy my Friend. God Bless... Addison Irby Your Bud.

“ Dear Anthony,

I will miss you so very much. All the holidays and trips spent together will always be remembered. I always enjoyed our pharmacy talks on the phone. You would always find a way to make me laugh. You and Christina are more than just friends...you are family. Thank you for always caring about me and being so importance to my family and I. We will all be reunited in the future when you can continue to make us laugh and smile. Please watch down on Christina and provide her with everlasting love, happiness and comfort. I know you already are.

We love you,

Amanda and Patrick

“ Dear Anthony,

I will always remember the fun times and memories of laughter that all of us shared together. From camping trips to 4th of Julys and New Years Eve parties, you were always the life of the party. You made all of those events so much fun to be a part of. I will miss seeing you from time to time on holidays at Debbie and Richies, but I will always enjoy remembering all of those great times with you and Christina. I hope you are resting peacefully now and we will all see you again. I pray that your family and Christina can find peace at this time.

Love always

“ Richie, Debbie, Amanda and Matthew,

Dear Anthony,

We will miss you so very much. The wonderful times we had together with you and Christina. The Places we have been together on vacations and at our home. The laughs we had together and the teasing we did to each other will always be in our Hearts and minds. We will be sad for sometime to come, but we will also celebrate your life and the memories you have left us all. We know that you are in Gods Kingdom now with everlasting Life and Happiness. May God Bless you, Christina and your family and may his face shine upon us all.

Love and God Bless

A poem below that I thought you would like.

*I sit around and wonder,
and watch the days go by.
I look at all the pictures,
and ask, why did you have to die?*

*You've always been there for me, because you were my best friend,
and I was always there for you until the very end.*

*But now it's time to let you go,
your spirit now is free.
Even though you won't really be gone,
because you'll live inside of me.*

*So when we have to leave you at your resting place,
I will always remember your smiling, beautiful face.*

*This is hardly a goodbye,
so I won't weep anymore,
because now you're in better place
then you ever were before.*

Even though that I will miss you, and I'll think about you everyday you'll always be my best friend, and that's all I have to say.

“ Anthony,
I will always remember you, for the many talks we had both personal and on the job. One attribute you possessed that I always wished everyone had, and always preached to my kids, was - when you start a job always leave it in better condition than when you found it. I always used to kid you (and then that silly chuckle you would get) about your cleanliness, maybe because I saw me in you. Prior to your illness (un-be-known to me) we spoke often and long about the possibility of a move to Florida - without pushing you, I was actually looking forward to that possibility. Well friend, I'll just leave it at - may you rest in "Our Lords" care, and as Christine wrote - "We ask that life be kind and watch us from above".
Your friend, always --- Vic

“ To My Husband Anthony,

*I pray you'll be our eyes and watch us where we go.
And help us to be wise in times when we don't know.
Let this be our prayer when we lose our way.
I pray we'll find your light and hold it in our hearts, when stars go out each night.
Let this be our prayer, when shadows fill our day.
Lead us to a place, guide us with your grace.
We ask that life be kind and watch us from above.
Let this be our prayer, just like every child
Give us faith so we'll be safe.*

*Love,
Your Best Freind
Christina*

Our memories of Anthony were of his young boyhood life . Rest in peace Anthony . Be free of pain. Death does not separate us from those we love. it deepens our union with GOD and with each other. Love Frankie and Lena
