

Anthony S. Santaromita

July 23, 1929 - February 21, 2019

Anthony S. Santaromita, passed away on Thursday, February 21, 2019 at the age of 89.

He was born and raised in the Greenwich Village section of Manhattan and settled in Eltingville in 1963. Anthony served honorably in the United States Army during the Koren War from 1951 to 1953, achieving the rank of Private 1st Class. He worked as a police officer with the NYC Police Department for 20 years, retiring from 1 Police Plaza in 1978. He then operated elevators for the Library for the Blind in Greenwich Village.

He was an avid Yankee fan and also enjoyed taking trips to Atlantic City, Aruba and various cruises with his wife and family. He loved reading and was known for his quick ability to read an entire book in one day. Anthony was a kind and gentle soul who always had a smile on his face. Above all, he was devoted to his family, a loving husband, father and grandfather. Family was extremely important and always came first.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 65 years, Anna. Loving father of Frank, Mary and Stella. Dear brother of Marie Stamos and brother-in-law of Teddy Stamos. Devoted grandfather of Megan. Fond uncle of Frank and Paul Stamos.

Memorial Visitation will take place from 2-5 p.m. on Saturday, April 27, 2019, at the John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ Anna and Family,

My sincerest condolences on the loss of Doc. My fathers cousin and my mothers old classmate. May he rest in eternal piece with so many of those we loved and are gone.

Love,
