“ Dear Keys,
It's been over 70 years that we have been 59th Street friends.
Let's remember the good times.
Playing on the sidewalk in front of our houses, the PS 105
schoolyard, our hockey teams from the 79th Street park, the Ft.
Hamilton park, and the Flatbush Avenue hockey rink.
Being New York Rangers season ticket holders, with your brother Sal.
You were a loving husband to Barbara, and a loving father to Lisa and Anthony and to your grandchildren.
You will be missed..
Rest in peace my friend.
