Shared this one because it is one of my favorite colors. Do you remember when I was younger and wore this color so much. I would try to match those purple shoes that I wore nearly daily with a matching belt, bag, and feathers in my hair.

“ A picture of you sitting on “Santa’s” lap just popped up. It’s not Christmas time but there you were. I’m going to take it as a sign you were saying hi! I miss you and think about you all the time...until we meet again.

“ Hi mom! You thought the family was big before, well it got bigger!
James came into this world 7/7/22 and you and uncle Wally would have just loved him! I’m sure there will be more in the years to come! I hope you are now pain free and enjoying flying around. I miss you here on earth but I know you are in a better place. Please come visit me in my dreams....

“ One year ago from 6-9 pm we were saying goodbye to you. How interesting one of your childhood friends reached out to me a little after 7pm today because she just found our through her son that you passed away. It felt like you were reaching out to me. I miss you and appreciated being able to talk with someone who knew you.

“ Last year at this time I was making funeral arrangements. I had to pick your dress, shoes, jewelry, etc. Today on what would have been your 81st birthday I was wrapping Christmas gift...I start very early lol and I found your earrings that you wore at your viewing. I was so overwhelmed not only by joy that I had them in my possession but also because I thought it was a sign of you watching over me. I hope you had an amazing day celebrating your Earthly birthday. I miss you mom xoxo 🥰

“ It's hard to believe that today marks the 1 year anniversary of your return to heaven. It must be beautiful up there. I know you visit me because I feel your presence at times but I really wish that you would visit me in my dreams. I know you are no longer suffering and in pain. May you rest in the sweetest of peace. Till we meet again.

Then it really hit me that I now feel like an orphan now that both of you are gone. I hope that you are laughing and playing in heaven. I hope you are pain free and able to easily breathe. “ It's 6 months today that you were called back to Heaven. This is your favorite time of the year. You loved everything about it, the lights, music, and natural beauty of it all. I'm trying to stay positive and enjoy it. I know that is what you would want me to do but it is hard. Everything reminds me of you. I'm sure you are watching us and enjoying this time in a different way. I hope you love your forever ornament. I tried to incorporate all the things you loved, angel, pink, shimmer, and hearts from me to you. I miss you every day.
