

Archie C. Love

February 3, 1937 - October 4, 2022

Archie C. Love, 85, a longtime resident of Staten Island, passed away peacefully on Oct. 4, 2022. He was married to Camille Love (née Cordasci) for 61 years, and had three children.

Born in Brooklyn, he joined the U.S. Navy in 1955 and served 4 years as an Airborne Radar Operator. In 1961 he joined the NYPD where he had a long and successful career rising to the rank of Deputy Chief before retiring after 37 years. Between 1972 and 1980 he served in the Borough Command office as Planning Lieutenant for S.I. In 1980 he was promoted to Captain and became C.O. of the Operations Div. at 1PP and was promoted to Deputy Inspector as Deputy Director of Emergency Management followed by Executive Officer Patrol Borough Staten Island as an Inspector. He retired as Deputy Chief and Commander of the Communications Division.

After retirement, he enjoyed traveling, and attending his grandchildren's many sporting activities. Archie is survived by his loving wife Camille, children June Lough (Sean), Thomas, and Stephen (Carolann). He is also survived by his grandchildren Alexandra, Alexa, Monica, Cameron & Casey, great grandchild Elara, and sister, Helen Love.

The family will receive friends from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. on Friday, October 7, 2022, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28

“ Best boss I ever had even when he would call me into his office and scare heck out of me. Actually all he did was want to thank me for my work and want to talk about his family. Wonderful man. He was a true gentleman, always had smile on his face. RIP Chief. Sincerely, Christine(Hazel) Bukowski
