“ Our Uncle Austin was a proud and devoted family man. He was born of hearty Irish American stock and Brooklyn tough! My family followed Uncle Austin, Aunt El, Grand Aunt Ann, and little cousin Kelly on the grand exodus from Brooklyn to Staten Island. Several years later our cousin Kevin joined the family and completed their family. Our uncle loved his family and cherished his grandchildren. He will be dearly missed by all who were lucky to enough to know him. May he rest in peace and know that all of his family will watch over his loved ones.
