“ May you Rest In Peace and watch over Miranda. We had wonderful times with all the sleepovers Miranda and I had as little girls. Loved making the mac and cheese and the homemade rice crispies. And all the other fun times we had!

“ One of my favorite memories was taking a road trip with Barbara, and her Aunt Barbara Molinelli. Barbara turned 16 that year. We headed up to Wells Beach, Maine and stayed at a little B&B right off of the ocean. Lots of laughs at a lobster dinner, squirting each other as we cracked them open. We stopped at the Mystic Seaport, and stayed overnight in Rhode Island in a small hotel in the middle of a cornfield. Good times.

“ I was there when her parents brought her home from the private adoption. We were all so happy! She was so beautiful! My uncle was so proud. She was just❤️❤️4 months younger than my son John. Aunt Joanie lived near me then & we'd watch soap operas while the babies napped! Who knew is loose my first b st friend Joanie & then my second one Barbara! Keep an eye out for me at the gates, you should not have been first....
