“ Uncle Abe was the patriarch of the Gupit family in New York City and helped my mom and dad since they first arrived in New York City in 1970. Growing up we would see Uncle Abe and Auntie Lydia for so many celebrations, especially Thanksgiving and Christmas. We will miss Uncle Abe very much, he was always a very kind, generous person with a good sense of humor. He guided us with his profound wisdom and he was an inspiration to all. Rest In Peace, Uncle Abe!

“ So many fond memories driving me to school and all over Staten Island for me to be with my friends. Cooking gourmet breakfasts for us every school day then driving us to school for 12 years. Letting me play baseball with the peppers, tomatoes and empty soda cans in his backyard. Buying donuts and lotto and making the best sandwiches, roast beef and fried rice! He was so proud of me, my siblings, my cousins and my children. We cannot thank him enough and will miss him greatly.

“ Thank you for the expressions of sympathy from around the world sent to my mom and me. World events keep us from gathering for his funeral. Rest assured that when it is safe to do so, we will meet to celebrate my dad’s life. He loved togetherness and lifting others up to achieve their happiness. He will always be remembered for his selflessness, kindness and generosity. We called his house, “Grand Central Station,” because he always welcomed people, no matter the day or hour. May he Rest In Peace knowing how much we love and respect him today and forever.
