

Betsy Dubovsky

November 12, 1951 - February 9, 2021

Betsy Dubovsky, who served as the first executive director of The Staten Island Foundation in a career that would span 22 years and who managed the operations and the annual allocations of the $75 million foundation, died Tuesday afternoon from complications of pancreatic cancer. She was 69.

The Staten Island Foundation, a champion of results for the least advantaged people on Staten Island, focuses on efforts aiming at population-level improvements in health, education and financial security.

Dubovsky's entire professional life, after receiving a master's degree in social work from Rutgers University, has been in service to the not-for-profit community.

A graduate of the Columbia Business School Institute for Not-for-Profit Management Executive Education, she formerly held positions for the American Red Cross in Greater New York, the Community Agency for Senior Citizens, the Visiting Nurse Association, the Eger Health Care & Rehabilitation Center, the Staten Island Branch of the YMCA of Greater New York, and Wagner College.

Dubovsky gained extensive knowledge of community needs, as well as in the non-profit sector and its issues, from experience as a social worker providing services as a director and manager of services, as a fundraising and public relations professional, as an adjunct lecturer and as a board management volunteer.

Elizabeth was the devoted wife of 45 years to Bill Dubovsky, spending more than 50 years together. Beloved mother of Neal Dubovsky (Kristin MacDougal) and Allison Dubovsky (Stefano Bernardini). Cherished twin sister of Martin Sheil his wife Cathy and son Dylan Sheil. Loving grandmother to Gavin and Connor Dubovsky.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10:15 AM on Monday at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church 5411 Amboy Road, Staten Island, NY. Private cremation will follow.

The family will receive friends from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM on Sunday, February 14, 2021, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ I was saddened to hear about Betsy's passing. She was a champion for advancing issues that concerned residents of Staten Island in her role as the Executive Director of the Staten Island Foundation--and a partner in the field of philanthropy. Her tenacious, passionate, and well-placed advocacy to ensure the broader philanthropic field considered Staten Island in their programming was acritical part of her being both a champion for the borough and a colleague in the world of philanthropy. Condolences to her family and colleagues. She will be missed--but her legacy to improve life for residents of Staten Island continues in the form of the many projects and programs she supported.
