

Bridget Shenk

March 5, 1982 - December 21, 2017

Bridget Shenk, 35 of Elm Park, passed away tragically on Thursday, December 21, 2017.

Born Monday, April 5, 1982 in Port Richmond, she was the loving daughter to Dorothy Todd McLeod and the late Andrew Shenk.

Bridget was a graduate of Port Richmond High School. She will always be remembered for her exceptionally big heart, her joking and funny traits and as being a friend to all she met that came with her outgoing personality.

Bridget was a beloved daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin and friend. She filled the room with love and laughter and she will be greatly missed by all.

She was expecting her first son Andrew Michael Shenk on July 8th, 2018. She was could not wait to become a Mother. He would have been her greatest accomplishment.

Bridget is survived by her mother, Dorothy Todd McLeod; her sister Jennifer Shenk; her brother Michael Shenk; her nieces Desiree and Maya; her nephews Michael, Nicholas and Xavier; her great niece Laniyah; and many loving aunts and uncles, cousins and friends.

A Funeral service will be held at 8:00 PM on Wednesday at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc. located at 28 Eltingville Blvd Staten Island, New York 10312. Arrangements Include Private Cremation.

The family will receive friends from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Wednesday, December 27, 2017, at John Vincent Scalia Home for Funerals, Inc., 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, New York.

“ Bridget Rose Shenk had the biggest heart and most loving personality. She was 3months pregnant with her first baby of which she was so waiting to be a mother. I loved my daughter and was looking forward to having another grandchild. We found out that the baby was a boy when the autopsy was performed. Now she rest in heaven with her child in her arms with all the family members that have also passed to Paradise.
