“ I have known Carmela for many years since I married into the Johnson family. My husband, Frank, was Godfather to her husband Peter. Carmela and Peter were a young Bride and Groom when I met them. Over the years, I came to admire and respect the love they had for one another, I always thought of them as being joined at the hip. They did everything together, spent all their time laughing and supporting one another. Their love was unusual: deep and true. Carmela was fun to be around. And, she showed her love with a big pot of "sauce" and pasta. She would send Peter to the store for just the right bread. I sure hope she left the recipe with someone so it can be passed down to those of us who remember it with love. Carmella will be missed. She was remarkable and we, in the Johnson family, loved her dearly, RIP Carmela.
