“ So many memories, too many to list on a post. I can summarize that Mrs. Fiechter was such a HUGE part of my childhood being the loving mother of my best friend. The July 4th and Labor Day BBQ's, the ride sharing duty for scouts and basketball, the many times of picking me up from school when I was sick (mostly faked btw...and I'm sure she knew!). She was a big part of some of the best and earliest memories that I will always treasure until the day I am called home. She was a member of the "Powell St. Mom Club"....and I have no doubt, my Mom (and Dad) are there in Heaven with open arms along with all the others (too many) to welcome her home. I love you with all my heart Mrs. Fiechter, rest easy knowing that Joseph and I remain brothers to the end and we promise to do our absolute best to stay out of trouble, laugh until we cry, and keep your memory alive! You are already sorely missed, until we meet again.

Love,
Brian & the Hillen Clan
