“ For 15 years, Carol and I worked side by side. She was so much more than a coworker—she was a dear friend. Together, we shared countless laughs and supported each other through tears and challenges.

Carol spoke often and with such pride about her beautiful family—they were truly the light of her life. I will always carry with me the fondest memories of her warm laughter, her heartfelt stories, her deep compassion, and the love she so freely gave to everyone around her.

May the Lord bring comfort to her family during this time of sorrow, and may they feel the enduring warmth of her love in their hearts. Let us remember that those we love never truly leave us—they live on in the memories we cherish and the stories we continue to share.

Till we meet again... May God welcome you with the same love you showed others.
