

Carol A. Rinaldi

December 8, 1944 - October 16, 2018

Carol A. Rinaldi, 73, passed away on Tuesday, October 16, 2018, at Staten Island University Hospital North in Staten Island, New York.

She was born and raised in Brooklyn, NY to the late Fred and Ethel Lindahl. Carol moved to Great Kills and most recently to Eltingville. She was a clerk with the United States Postal Service in Staten Island.

Some of her hobbies included dancing, cooking with her granddaughter, Brianna and listening to music, mostly oldies. She was a devoted mother and grandmother who loved spending time with her family, especially her granddaughter.

She was the beloved mother to Dana DaCosta and Joseph Rinaldi; devoted grandmother to Brianna; dear sister to Eileen Clark and the late Robert Lindahl and the late Nancy Steiper.

A Memorial Mass will be offered at 9:45 a.m. on Saturday at St. Clare Church located at 110 Nelson Ave. Staten Island, New York 10308. Interment of cremains will follow in Resurrection Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers donations in Carol's name to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital would be greatly appreciated.

“ The most selfless and caring mother I could have ever imagined in my wildest dreams. You put your children and granddaughter above everything else on this Earth including yourself and your own well being. There was never a time I couldn't call or see you in a seconds notice. Mom, you have rewritten the definition of unconditional LOVE!! To the best Mom..I'll talk to you again when you get back from your cruise to Hawaii..meanwhile keep dancing with Uncle Bobby and enjoy the beautiful blue water and skies...No one deserves it more than you!! Check in once and a while.... Love Always..Your son, Joseph

Joe, I heard her name announced at mass and I am truly sorry to you and your family. I remember riding my Diamondback to your house back during our IS 7 days and her dropping us off when we would head to Ranger games. She was such a really nice woman. God bless her and all of you during this tough time.
