“ I’m so sorry for your loss. My memory of your mother brings a smile to my face. As a young girl, I so admired her sense of style and loved her confidence. I would always consider myself lucky to be invited to go on a shopping trip to a NJ mall with her and her daughters. Your dad and her always made me feel at home. Years later I would bump into them from time to time and I would always leave the conversation smiling. It was just their way. She will be missed but never forgotten. Michelle Honore’ Fenley
