“ It's been many years since I've had the opportunity to see Katie, but thought of her often. The memories are of a happy time when we all lived on 6th Street and us kids would play together and the parents were all close friends. Except the Cresci's were also cousins. So that's very special. In my heart your mom is eternally young, smiling and holding your dads hand. I'm broken hearted I won't see her next month. She never lost her beauty. Rest In Peace Katie. You and Tony are again with my parents Ann & Chris. Hope you're playing cards!
